Pat Sendejas, a Southern California resident, married with two adult sons, has had 25 years experience in interior and environmental design. Pat is an award winning Interior Designer, Feng Shui Consultant, Author of two books; Letting Go to Create Magic, and Letting Go to Create Magic...a Feng Shui Workbook.

In Pat's powerful seminars and individual consulting, Pat creates a win-win situation between employer and employee by improving the home and work environments, which in turn result in happier and healthier employees and greater profit for business. Pat helps realtors sell homes in days instead of weeks. Pat teaches us how creating spaces that help us relax has a direct influence on our body's immune system and goes a long way to improve our health. Pat has come to realize that health is wealth!

In her seminars using a Power Point presentation Pat teaches how to create environments that help you feel like you are on vacation, waking up with more energy, accessing inner guidance, and promoting good communication. Her clients enjoy hearing about the latest information on consumer trends and cutting-edge technologies.

Pat has a B.A. Degree from California State University-Northridge, is a graduate of UCLA's Environmental and Interior Design Program. She has certification from the American Feng Shui Institute, and accreditation from the California Council for Interior Design Certification. Pat is a past instructor for all Interior Design and Feng Shui courses for Moorpark College.

Pat has been invited to speak at the Independent Community Bankers of America Convention in Las Vegas, California Realtors Association Convention in Long Beach, CA, US Homeland Security Department at LAX, Celebrity, and Costa Cruise Lines.
